World Day Prayer of 2018

The World Day Prayer for the year 2018 was held on Saturday March 10th, 2018 at St. Mary's Jacobite Syriac Orthodox Church- Carrollton from 09:00 AM to 01:00 PM. The president Rev. Fr. Mathai Mannoovadakethil presided over the meeting. Very Rev. V. M. Thomas Corepiscopa, the vicar of the hosting parish welcomed the audience to the meeting. After the opening procession ceremony, Mrs. Ann Thomas Kochamma introduced theme of the country Suriname the designated country for the year with special illustrations along with the challenges by the current economic crisis.

Mrs. Dr. Irene Abraham, the main speaker for the function pointed out the challenges currently faced by Suriname. Many of the audience were unknown to the economic crises existed in that part of South America. The audience appreciated the vibrant presentation of the speaker who is a graduate in Master of theology from the University of North Texas.

The meeting conducted special prayers for that country and extended our support for the spiritual growth of that part of the region through prayers. Most of our clergies from the KECF member parishes participated in the program.

The Kerala Ecumenical Christian Fellowship Choir team under the leadership of Mr. John Thomas presented various melodious Christian songs which added special spiritual effects to the entire program. Over 350 ladies of the KECF member parishes participated in the function which included the skit presentation by St. Mary's Jacobite Syriac Orthodox Church, the hosting church.

During the business session, it was decided to conduct the 2019 World Day Prayer conference on March 02nd, at St. Mary's Malankara Catholic Church, Mesquite under the leadership of Rev. Fr. Mathai Mannoovadakethil. Mrs. Mercy Mathai, member of that parish has been elected as the coordinator for the function. On behalf of the KECF, I sincerely appreciate all the clergies, leaders, Volunteers and speakers from various churches for their dedication and hard work which made the program a great success. The function ended at 01:00 PM with delicious lunch for everyone.

7. KECF Executive Committee Meetings:

The KECF Executive committee met 4 times to discuss various activities of the organization and taken important decisions which were implemented during the year. In addition to these meetings, various conference calls were conducted during the year to make appropriate decisions needed as necessary.

8. KECF General Body Meetings:

The Kerala Ecumenical Christian Fellowship conducted five general body meetings during the year. The half yearly General Body meeting for the year was held on July 15th, 2018 at 04:00 PM at St. Mary's Malankara Catholic Church, 2615 East Scyene Road, Mesquite, TX 75181. The meeting started with prayer led by Very Rev. V. M. Thomas Corepiscopa followed by the welcome speech by Rev. Fr. Mathai Mannoovadakethil, the president of the Kerala Ecumenical Christian Fellowship. The report of the previous general body meeting was presented by the General Secretary and the half- year accounts were presented by the KECF Trustee Mr. Jobi Abraham. Both of them were passed unanimously without any amendments. There were fourteen (14) members from various KECF member parishes who participated in the general body.

In addition to the half- year general body meeting, there were four additional meetings held during the year to discuss and decide various important matters concerning the organization.

9) KECF- Three-Day Ecumenical Convention:

The 21st, three-day ecumenical convention for the year was held on August 10, 11, and 12th, 2018 at St. Mary's Malankara Orthodox Valiyapally, Farmers Branch from 06:00 PM to 09:00 PM. The 2018 KECF President Rev. Fr. Mathai Mannoorvadakethil, introduced and welcomed the chief guests, all the clergies and the audience for the function.

As per the established guidelines, the KECF choir worship started sharp at 06:30 PM followed by the opening prayer of the conference. This year we were blessed by the presence of our chief guest and the main speaker H. G. Dr. Thomas Mar Koorilos Metropolitan. In addition, Rt. Rev. Dr. Euyakim Mar Coorilos Episcopa of Malankara Mar Thoma Syrian Church (Diocese of Kottarakara-Punalur) were present for the inaugural function. Rt. Rev. Dr. Euyakim Mar Coorilos bishop delivered an exemplary spiritual message in emphasizing to the significance of ecumenism in today's challenges among the world religions. He also recognized and appreciated the unity of the KECF member parishes in the Dallas area for the last 40 years of its existence.

Our invited chief guest and the main speaker H. G. Dr. Thomas Mar Koorilos, (Archbishop of Malankara Catholic Church, Archdiocese of Thiruvella, Kerala State, India) was able to keep the audience engaged with his spontaneous messages with his perspective knowledge about the Holy Bible.

The convention sprouted spiritually nourishing experiences among the audience by learning and understanding more about the religion along with its comparison to our traditions and cultural values of the motherland. The three-day ecumenical convention was a great success and has generated spiritual growth among the attendees.

Mr. John Thomas, the KECF choir director along with various singers from the member parishes deserves special appreciations for their melodious and harmonious choir songs presentation during the convention days which was enjoyed and appreciated by the audience. Mr. Eldo Jacob and Mr. Thomas Mathew deserves special appreciation for their dedication and commitment to the KECF for many years by assisting the choir with musical instruments. An average over 900 people participated for the convention.

The 3-day convention ended on August 12th at 09:00 PM with vote of thanks by the KECF General Secretary Mr. Alex Alexander.

10) KECF Youth Convention:

Under the leadership of the KECF youth coordinator Mr. Josh Mathew, the youth convention and retreat were held on June 18th, 2018 Saturday from 09:00 AM at St. Mary's Malankara Catholic Church, Mesquite. The program started with prayer, welcome speech followed by the praise and worship session by the youth members from various member parishes.

This year, we were fortunate to have our invited chief guest Rev. Sister Dr. Jocelyn Edathil, MD from New Jersey as the speaker for the youth conference. The participants enthusiastically enjoyed every minute of Dr. Edathil's presentations, question and answer sessions, which wiped out many concerns existed among the youths in relation to the religions and their academic environment and education.

As usual, the breakfast, lunch and snacks were served to the participants and the event was a great success with the participation of over 60 youths. The program was organized and conducted by our own youth leaders from member parishes which concluded with vote of thanks by Mr. Alex Alexander, the General Secretary of the organization by 06:00 PM.

11) KECF Sports and Games:

The 2018 Youth sports and games competitions were held on November 03rd, from 09:00 AM at Katy Rail Road Park, Forney. Under the leadership of the KECF youth coordinator Mr. Josh Mathew, and the sub-committees, eight teams were participated from various KECF member parishes in the flag football games. Rev. Fr. Mathai Mannoovadakethil who supervised the events deserves special appreciation and the spots events were well enjoyed by our youth members. Registration fees from the participants, fees to the referees and other sports related expenses were met from the registration fees. The youths were able to generate a balance of $942.00 dollars to the KECF fund after all the related expenses. Mar Thoma Church of Dallas, Carrollton, were the winning champions for the year and the KECF Revolving Championship trophy donated by Mr. Shiju Abraham Vadakkamannil, was awarded to the winning team at the end of the event. Over 150 youth members from our KECF member churches participated in this year's tournament which was a great success and the youths are anxiously looking forward towards the next years tournament.

Very Rev. C.K. Jacob, started the program with the opening prayer followed by the Holy Bible reading in English and Malayalam and the closing prayer by Very Rev. V. M. Thomas, Corepiscopa, concluded the 1st part of the worship services.

Presidential Address

The Kerala Ecumenical Christian Fellowship President Rev. Fr. Mathai Mannoovadakethil welcomed the audience to the 2018 Christmas New Year celebrations and to the 40th anniversary of the organization. During the address, he appreciated all the past and present individuals who contributed their inspirational talents and hard work which made the event a success, unity and growth towards bringing the KECF as a team under one spiritual umbrella.

Inauguration of the Program:

The president invited all the chief guests, clergies and the KECF committee members to the stage for the inaugural function. After the felicitation by the Council Member of the City of Coppell Hon. Biju

Mathew, he inaugurated the program by lighting the lamp along with Very Rev. C. K. Jacob and other KECF officials.

During his remarks, Very Rev. C. K. Jacob, the vicar general expressed congratulations and appreciations and best wishes for the bright future of the KECF on behalf of himself and of the St. Thomas Evangelical Church of India.

Rev. Fr. John Kunnathusserril, who is one of the founding member and active supporter of the KECF since its inception, recollected the challenges faced by the organization until 1998 in finding suitable facilities to conduct the yearly program with limited resources. He stated that when this origination was started with three Christian denominations and about sixty people, the Lord has been so grateful to our community by upholding the churches together and grow to a 21-member organization with 2000- 3000 participants every year. He thanked everyone who contributed to the growth and unity of the KECF and wished all the best for the future years to come.

In addition, we were able to print a full center page supplement in the Malayalam News Paper SANGAMAM in connection with the 40th Anniversary celebrations. The supplement was inaugurated by presenting copies to the Honorable Council Member and Very Rev. C.K. Jacob by the KECF President Rev. Fr. Mathai Mannoovadakethil. This issue has been distributed to all the major cities in the USA. On behalf of the KECF executive committee, I express my sincere thanks and appreciation to Mr. Shaji Ramapuram who took the initiative and enthusiasm to fulfill this project.

Presentations of the evening:

The Christmas New Year choir presentation started with a well-organized Christmas skit presented by the members of the hosting church St. Mary's Malankara Catholic Church. The skit was well appreciated by the audiences which was beyond imagination on characterization, action and professionalism. This is the first time in the history of the KECF, the hosting church was able to use the LED projector as the back-stage screen which appeared better than a movie screen. On behalf of the KECF, I sincerely appreciate everyone of the St. Mary's Malankara Catholic Church for their dedication, hard work and the incomparable execution of the skit actors' characterizations on the stage performances.

KECF Ecumenical Choir

The Choir members from 21-member parishes presented a well-organized ecumenical choir for the audience. The KECF choir coordinator Mr. Thomas John deserves appreciation for coordinating this item and we express our thanks to everyone who took part in the presentation.

Presentation by the Member Churches

Out of the 21-KECF member parishes, 18 were able to present melodious Christmas carol songs which were highly appreciated and enjoyed by the audience of over 2000 people.

Christmas and New Year Message

We were blessed by the presence of H. G. Dr. Zacharias Mar Aprem Metropolitan, who delivered the Christmas and New Year Message during the program. H. G. reminded us to uphold the unconditional love of our Savior Jesus Christ among us in today's world which is filled with selfishness, crimes and atrocities. H. G. encouraged the people to love, care and assist each other and help the homeland which is still under crises due to the recent flooding.

H.G. well appreciated all the past and present leaders of the organization and churches for its unity and strength for the last 40 years in the southwest part of this country which has set an example for the other parts of the world. (The Christmas New Year message was delayed due to the late arrival of H. G. Dr. Zacharias Mar Aprem due to the demise of Very. Rev. C. M. John Corepiscopa, one of the senior priests of the Malankara Orthodox Church at New Jersey)

13) KECF Finance:

Besides the $200.00 contribution per year from each member parishes, we were able to collect the offertory during the 3- day ecumenical convention and the Christmas new year program as income for this year. As per the set guidelines and bylaws, the KECF do not accept any sponsorship from individuals or business for any of the KECF related functions. With an opening balance of $5,540.34 received from previous years, we were able to operate the expenses during the year with a closing balance of $3,436.83. There are three-member churches who has not yet paid their annual dues for the year 2018 which shall be collected by the next year's executive committee. A detailed finance report will be presented by the KECF trustee Mr. Jobi Abraham for discussion and approval by this general body meeting.
